SHORT STORY BOOK LAUNCH

SATURDAY 21ST JUNE

Henton resident, Peter Gatenby, is launching his third short story with an event at Double-Gate Farm Tea Room in Godney. Come along between 11am and 1pm to meet the author, hear about the book, and for a chance to buy it: it's titled "St Columba's Seat and a Touch of Serendipity", which is a love story.

Key to the story is this picture as it wins the prize for our hero James. The story uses the background of a village on the Great Glen Way which was walked by Peter on his way to Easter Head on Dunnet, being furthest north.

Peter's other books: 'Married by Lunchtime' and 'La Nuit A Therouanne' plus various greetings cards will be on sale with cash or card payments. Entry to the launch event is free and visitors can purchase drinks and cakes from Double-Gate Farm Tea Room.

VE CELEBRATION IN WOOKEY

The VE Day celebrations in Buxton hall were brilliant and the organisers would like to say a big 'thank you' to all the people who attended and made it so successful. This includes the volunteers from the air ambulance and all the mums and dads who brought their children from school.

In particular we are grateful to all the helpers who worked so hard to produce such a wonderful event. We raised a massive £630.00 - which is quite unbelievable. It means we are able to purchase the Defibrillator for the hall and give donations to The Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance and to "Help the Heroes". Grateful thanks to all

WEEKLY PRAYER MEETINGS

Catch the vicar... pop into one of the midweek prayer meetings or Holy Communion:

4:30pm Monday Prayer at Henton Church,
9:15am Tuesday Prayer at Coxley Church,
10am Wednesday Communion at Wookey.

If you are worried or want to pray about anything, you can find Rev'd Jan at one of the prayer groups. Each is a small, friendly group of people who come together to pray for individuals, our communities and the world.

Please feel free to come when you can.

People from any of the villages are welcome at all the prayer meetings - the more the merrier!

SUMMER COURSE: JESUS - ALIVE AGAIN!

At Easter we've celebrated Jesus conquering death and the short course for this summer will look at paintings and prints related to the Bible accounts of Jesus appearing to a variety of people after his resurrection. The art works range from the medieval period to the modern age.

Join a friendly group of people for an hour as we look at these pictures, hear a Bible reading and take away something to encourage our faith.

Sessions start at 7:30pm. Venue: Wookey Church. Sessions on Thursdays on: 26th June, 3rd July, 24th July, 31st July, 14th August and 28th August. Contact Katrina if you are interested in attending: benadmin@chwchurches.co.uk or 07704 604165
